Protect American River Canyons' American River Confluence Festival Committee would like to invite you to our nineteenth annual Confluence Festival on Sunday, June 13th, 2010 from 9:00am to 4:00pm, held at the American River Canyon Overlook on Pacific Street behind the Gold Country Fairgrounds. We have much to celebrate this year in our shaded river theme village! The river has been restored to its natural channel. PCWA has a new state of the art pumping station to supply water to the outlying areas and State Parks has opened the China Bar Whitewater Recreation Area at the former Auburn dam site, which is fast becoming a recreational magnet for area river enthusiasts. PARC's goal is to pursue permanent protection for wilderness, scenic, historical and recreational resources of the Auburn State Recreation Area.

With your participation we will once again create our unique river village filled with fun recreational opportunities, music, entertainment, gourmet food, nature and art activities and more. All participants are encouraged to explore the nature, conservation and/or healthy life-style themes with interactive displays and demonstrations that emphasize appreciation of our natural resources. Help PARC create an inspiring river day for the community! This year we hope to create a zero waste festival.

Protect American River Canyons requests a booth fee of $35 plus a silent auction item to help defray our costs for shade and promotion of the Confluence Festival. Your booth fee enrolls your business or association as a PARC member and entitles you to all the membership benefits. Food vendors are requested to donate 15% of their sales. If you wish to attend, please fill out the attached invitation and send to PARC's PO Box. Providing your own tables and chairs would be very helpful. Space will be allocated on a "first come-first serve" basis.

PLEASE RESPOND ASAP.
